

A Billionaire's Insight

Billionaire H. Ross Perot said it, and "Fortune" magazine reported it:

"Guys, just remember, if you get real lucky, if you make a lot of money, if you go out and buy a lot of stuff -- it's gonna break.

"You got your biggest, fanciest mansion in the world. It has air conditioning. It's got a pool. Just think of all the pumps that are going to go out.

"Or go to a yacht basin any place in the world. Nobody is smiling, and I'll tell you why. Something broke that morning. The generator's out; the microwave oven doesn't work. Things just don't mean happiness."

Perot is right. Wealth doesn't translate into peace, joy and contentment. That comes from practicing the wisdom of God, and from the building of personal relationships.

That's why what we do in Life Care, American Lifestyles and Life Care at Home is so rewarding. Day in and day out.
