

A Prayer for You

Are you a mountain climber? I'm convinced that every one of us – and each person we meet today in the work of Life Care, Century Park and Life Care at Home – is climbing some kind of mountain. Perhaps it is the loss of a loved one, or concern over the illness of a family member or friend. Maybe it is financial pressure. It could be a relationship that has gone bad.

For some reason, there is an overwhelming need for comfort or encouragement in your life.

If so, here is a prayer for you. It is not original with me, and the author is unknown, but it refreshes me each time I drink of it.

May today there be peace with you. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be.

May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith.

May you use those gifts that you have received, and pass on the love that has been given to you.

May you be content knowing that you are a child of God.

Let His presence settle into your bones, and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, and to bask in the sun. It is there for each and every one of you.

May the sun always shine brightly on your face, and may peace be at your side as you walk through this life.

And now, my day stretches before me, brighter than before, and I pray that it is so with you.

--Beecher Hunter