

Acts of Kindness

We are involved in a noble mission: taking care of God's children. It's why we are with Life Care; it's why we do what we do. Our Lord equipped us for the task, and He called us into service.

All across our company, associates show up for work every day with a commitment to be obedient to Him. There are many ways to describe that singular dedication. Rechel Agulto, resource utilization specialist for the Southwest Division, sent me a card with a poem by Helen Steiner Rice stating the reason that compels us. It declares that thoughtfulness is a reflection of God's love. Here is the poem:

*When someone does a kindness,
It always seems to me
That's the way God up in Heaven
Would like us all to be.
For when we bring some pleasure
To another human heart,
We have followed in His footsteps
And we've had a little part
In serving Him Who loves us,
For I'm very sure it's true
That in serving those around us,
We serve and please Him, too.*

How about sharing this literary treasure with your fellow associates today? It should be a great encouragement to them.
