

Annual Meeting Begins

It's like camp meetin' time on Life Care's Corporate Plaza this week! The 2007 annual management meeting of the company is under way.

Executive directors, regional, divisional and corporate vice presidents, along with spouses, are in Cleveland for the celebration, which will continue through lunch on Wednesday. Theme of the meeting is A Faithful History: A Promising Future. Associates arrived by plane and automobile on Saturday. Sunday began with breakfast and a program of music and inspiration, led by Michaela Wilcoxon, daughter of Michael and Kelly Wilcoxon, executive secretary to the president, and Curtis and Charmaine Bridgeman, who have a long history of musical contributions to Life Care events. The afternoon activities included whitewater rafting on the Ocoee River, visits to the Tennessee Aquarium and Imax Theatre, shopping at Hamilton Place Mall, a tour of Ruby Falls and the Civil War-related Point Park on Lookout Mountain, fun at Lake Winnepesaukah theme park and a luncheon cruise on the Southern Belle riverboat.

The official opening came today with a patriotic ceremony and welcomes by Chief Operating Officer Cathy Murray, President Beecher Hunter and Chairman Forrest Preston. The keynote address was Follow Your Heart, delivered by motivational speaker Emory Austin. Educational sessions were slated after lunch. Other keynote speakers of the week include Dr. Farris Jordan, Staying Motivated Through Comic Vision, on Tuesday, and Lou Heckler, Get Ready ... Get Set ... Get Engaged, on Wednesday.

Highlight of the meeting will be presentation of awards of excellence tonight.

We welcome our operational leadership to Cleveland.
