

Breakfast on the Shore

It was at sunrise when the men were returning from an all-night fishing trip.

And they had nothing to show for their efforts. Not a single fish.

As the boat approached the shore, the men noticed a man calling to them. He wanted to know if they had any fish.

The tired fishermen answered that they did not. This must have been an embarrassing moment, for these were professional fishermen.

The man on the shore then told them to cast their nets on the right side of their boat. When they did as the man suggested, the net immediately filled with large fish.

One of the fishermen was John, a disciple of Christ. He recognized the man on the shore. It was the Lord.

The disciples knew Jesus because they had spent time with Him. They recognized Him from a distance.

When the disciples reached the shore, Jesus had a charcoal fire already laid with fish cooking and bread ready. He invited the disciples to bring more fish from their catch and join Him for breakfast.

Can you imagine having breakfast with Christ? Think of what it would be like to have Jesus sitting across from you at your breakfast table.

What kind of preparations would you make? What would you wear? Who could you tell? What would you serve?

Would you be on pins and needles getting ready, wanting everything to be perfect?

The truth is Christ is ready with an RSVP to pass back immediately upon our invitation to Him. He is delighted to join us for breakfast, or any meal – anytime!

Come and have breakfast (John 21:12 NASB).

– Beecher Hunter