

CHURCH BLOOPERS

Mistakes? We all make them. And sometimes, they produce laughter. They can even show up in the church environment. Here are some bloopers collected from church bulletins and signs:

- Evening massage – 6 p.m.
- The pastor would appreciate it if the ladies of the congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday morning.
- The audience is asked to remain seated until the end of the recession. (That could be a while!)
- The Low Self-Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday at 7 to 8:30 p.m. Please use the back door.
- The pastor will preach his farewell message, after which the choir will sing, Break Forth Into Joy.
- Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our church and community.
- (From a newspaper) A song fest was hell at the Methodist church Wednesday.
- Today's sermon: "How Much Can a Man Drink?" with hymns from a full choir.
- Potluck supper: prayer and medication to follow.
- Don't let worry kill you off. Let the church help.
- Present were 22 members at the church meeting held at the home of Mrs. Marsha Crutchfield last evening. Mrs. Crutchfield and Mrs. Rankin sang a duet, "The Lord Knows Why."

THE WAY I FIGURE IT, IF THE LORD COVERED THE EARTH WITH TWO-THIRDS WATER AND ONLY ONE-THIRD LAND, HE MUST INTEND FOR US TO SPEND TWO-THIRDS OF OUR TIME FISHING

As the Bible says, in the Book of Proverbs, A merry heart does good, like medicine.

Here's hoping your heart is a little merrier as we start a new week.
