

God Is for You

Do you truly understand how special you are in God's sight?

The depth of God's love – His caring for us – is expressed in a beautiful way by one of my favorite writers. Max Lucado, minister and author, in his book Grace for the Moment seeks to define how the Lord feels about His children:

God is for you. Turn to the sidelines; that's God cheering your run. Look past the finish line; that's God applauding your steps. Listen for Him in the bleachers, shouting your name. Too tired to continue? He'll carry you. Too discouraged to fight? He's picking you up.

God is for you. Had He a calendar, your birthday would be circled. If He drove a car, your name would be on His bumper. If there's a tree in heaven, He's carved your name in the bark.

Today, as you go about your responsibilities in Life Care, Century Park and Life Care at Home, allow the knowledge of God's compassion and concern for you to guide your attitude and your interactions with the residents you serve, with the family members you engage, with visitors you greet, and with your fellow associates.

You are, indeed, a child of the King, made in His image; you are involved in a great mission, and you ought to feel good about that.

He will rejoice over you. You will rest in His love; He will sing and be joyful about you (Zephaniah 3:17).

What an assurance!
