

More of God's Sayings

On Monday, we discussed the development of the God Speaks campaign in 1998 with sayings "signed" by Him appearing on billboards around the country. Here is the remainder of those original 18 sayings. On Wednesday, we will share a new campaign prepared in 2005.

- "We need to talk." –God.
- "Keep using my name in vain, I'll make the rush hour longer." –God.
- "Loved the wedding, invite me to the marriage." –God.
- "That 'Love Thy Neighbor' thing ... I meant that." –God.
- "I love you ... I love you ... I love you." –God.
- "Will the road you're on get you to my place?" –God.
- "Follow me." –God.
- "Need directions?" –God.
- "You think it's hot here?" –God.
- "Tell the kids I love them." –God.
- "Need a marriage counselor? I'm available." –God.
- "Have you read my #1 best seller? (There will be a test.)" –God.
- "Do you have any idea where you're going?" –God.
- "Big Bang Theory ... you've got to be kidding." –God.
- "My way is the highway." –God.

All of these sayings, of course, are Bible-based. They are part of God's personal letter to us.

Reflect on them today, in some quiet moment for meditation.
