Our August 2010 Journey

New clinical and operational leadership from across our company are in Cleveland for Your Life Care Journey: Just the Beginning. They arrived Saturday by automobile and airplane for the five-day orientation program that will include getting to know corporate leaders and learning about the resources available to help them as they contribute to our mission of service.

Sunday morning began with breakfast and a program of inspirational music by Bo Cox, a Southern gospel singer. A personality test, True Colors, was administered by Jennie McClaren, senior vice president of Human Resources, and then participants headed for afternoon activities that consisted of shopping at Hamilton Place Mall, a walk through Rock City, and whitewater rafting on the Ocoee River. This morning, an opening ceremony, highlighted by a patriotic emphasis, and a discussion of Life Care's past, present and future were led by President Beecher Hunter. Introductions to various disciplines and departments dominate the rest of the meeting, with a closing ceremony at an associate luncheon planned for Wednesday.

Directors of nursing attending are Danielle Charron, Cynthia Harrelson, Briar Heisler, Gloria Arado, Lynn Bell, Joan Broadwell, Rhona Jones, Phyllis Peterson, Kim Ross, Brittney Staley, Tami Corsi, Rebecca Thomas, Linda Barnett, Patricia Cassero, Christy Kidd, Kara Pangle and Mary Salts. Regional directors of clinical services here are Jennifer Noble and Laura Hamilton.

Executive directors attending are Thomas Gomes, Hollie Hoyle, Rebecca Just, Bryan Merrell, Aaron Marson, Sara Kilstrom, Ruby Panuncial, Karen Schalte, Marsha Fulton, Darren Hulgan and Todd Norhton. Regional vice presidents here are Matthew Ham, Latessa Morris and Jennifer Solomon. Divisional vice presidents here are Michael Zomchek and Chris Mitchell.

The future for Life Care looks bright, indeed, with these capable and personable men and women joining our professional family.

Welcome, one and all, to Life Care!

– Beecher Hunter
