

Out of the Mouth

Need an incentive to guard your tongue? Check out these infamous quotes from some famous people:

- “I was recently on a tour of Latin America, and the only regret I have was that I didn’t study Latin harder in school so I could converse with those people.” – Former Vice President Dan Quayle
- “China is a big country, inhabited by many Chinese.” – Former French President Charles DeGaulle
- “A verbal contract isn’t worth the paper it’s written on.” – Film Executive Samuel Goldwyn
- “Half of this game is 90 percent mental.” – Baseball manager Danny Ozark
- “When more and more people are thrown out of work, unemployment results.” – Former U.S. President Calvin Coolidge
- “Things are more like they are now than they ever were before.” – Former President Dwight Eisenhower
- “It isn’t the pollution that’s harming the environment. It’s the impurities in our air and water that are doing it.” – Dan Quayle
- “The President has kept all of the promises he intended to keep.” – Former Bill Clinton aide George Stephanopolous

See, it can happen to any of us. These comments underscore the advice to think before we speak.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord. Psalm 19:14

--Beecher Hunter