

Pearls of Business Wisdom

Recently, I found an interesting article entitled Irrefutable Pearls of Business Wisdom. While the author is not identified, the piece is intriguing, to say the least, and perhaps you will enjoy it, too. Here they are:

1. Before you criticize co-workers, walk a mile in their shoes. That way, if they get angry, they'll be a mile away – and barefoot.
2. A clear conscience is often the sign of a bad memory.
3. It is almost always easier to get forgiveness than permission.
4. For every action, there is an equal and opposite government program.
5. Age is a very high price to pay for wisdom and maturity.
6. Bills travel through the mail at twice the speed of checks.
7. Men are from earth. Women are from earth. Deal with it.
8. Middle management is the point at which broadness of the mind and narrowness of the waist change places.
9. Junk is something you throw away three weeks before you need it.
10. Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again.
11. By the time your business can make ends meet, someone moves the ends.
12. Blessed are they who can laugh at themselves, for they shall never cease to be amused.

Hopefully, this is a lighthearted way to start your week.

Added to these “pearls,” just keep in mind: To appreciate nonsense requires a serious interest in life.

He will fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy (Job 8:21 NIV).
