

SIX MISTAKES OF MAN

Early in 2008, it is well to heed the advice of Cicero, the Roman philosopher and statesman, who wrote the following more than 2,000 years ago:

The Six Mistakes of Man

1. The delusion that personal gain is made by crushing others.
2. The tendency to worry about things that cannot be changed or corrected.
3. Insisting that a thing is impossible because we cannot accomplish it.
4. Refusing to set aside trivial preferences.
5. Neglecting development and refinement of the mind, and not acquiring the habit of reading and studying.
6. Attempting to compel others to believe and live as we do.

As we – you and I – go forth this year to pursue our mission in Life Care, Century Park and Life Care at Home, avoiding those mistakes should be high on our list of priorities. If we can do so, this will be an amazing period of time in terms of accomplishment and personal satisfaction.
