

Some Love Letters

Before Clara Schumann, the widow of German composer Robert Schumann (1810-1856), would play any of her husband's music in public, she would first privately read over some of his old love letters. Inspired by his words, she said it seemed as if his very life filled her, and she was then better able to interpret his musical compositions to the public.

That is a touching story, as it reveals the love that the couple had, each for the other.

God, the Creator of the universe, has written a love letter to you and to me. It is the Holy Bible. His letter contains amazing accounts of the depth of His love for us.

Daily, we should read God's words of love to us until we are thrilled by their truth. As we do, His Spirit will fill our hearts and minds. We will experience the peace of God.

We will also discover, as we peruse God's letter, that He loves others, too, and that He calls upon us to demonstrate His love in tangible ways to those we encounter.

In Life Care, Century Park and Life Care at Home, we have opportunity after opportunity to do just that.

--Beecher Hunter