

Spending Time

Time is precious; we all agree about that. Time, you see, is life. And if it is that important, how should we spend it? On that, we do not all agree, because we are individuals with unique talents and personal dreams.

Here are some basic suggestions, however, that will help contribute to the quality of our days upon this earth:

- Take time to laugh. It is the music of the soul.
- Take time to think. It is the source of decision-making.
- Take time to play. It is the wellspring of perpetual youth.
- Take time to read. It is the fountain of knowledge.
- Take time to love and be loved. It is a God-given privilege.
- Take time to be friendly. It is the road to happiness.
- Take time to give. It is too short a day to be selfish.
- Take time to work. It is the price of success.

And may your day be blessed with good choices about the time accorded you in pursuit of your plans and purposes.
