

The Adventure Called Life

As we have now moved into the new year and contemplate life and what is in store, here are some ideas worthy of meditation:

- Do not undermine your worth by comparing yourself with others. You are unique, and it is because we are different that each of us is special.
- Do not set your goals by what other people deem important. Only God knows what is best for you.
- Do not take for granted the things closest to your heart. Cling to them as you would your life, for without them, life is meaningless.
- Do not let your life slip through your fingers by living in the past or for the future. By living your life one day at a time, you live all the days of your life.
- Do not give up when you still have something to give. Nothing is really over until the moment you stop trying.
- Do not be afraid to encounter risks. It is by taking chances that we learn how to be brave.
- Do not shut love out of your life by saying it is impossible to find. The quickest way to receive love is to give love. The fastest way to lose love is to hold it too tightly.
- Do not dismiss your dreams. To be without dreams is to be without hope; to be without hope is to be without purpose.
- Do not run through life so fast that you forget not only where you have been, but also where you are going. Life is not a race, but a journey to be savored each step of the way.

Life truly is an adventure, and we should eagerly await the drama of each new day.

His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue (2 Peter 1:3 NKJV).
