

The August Journey Class

The third and final class of Your Life Care Journey: Just the Beginning for 2011 is under way on the Corporate Plaza in Cleveland, Tenn., today. These new associates arrived by airplane and automobile on Saturday.

Sunday morning began with breakfast and a program of music and inspiration offered by gifted singer Bo Cox. A True Colors assessment was led by Jennie Hobbs, senior vice president of Human Resources. The group then departed for recreation that included shopping at Hamilton Place Mall and in Blue Ridge, Ga., whitewater rafting on the Ocoee River, and ZipStream Aerial Adventures on Lookout Mountain.

Today's activities began with a patriotic opening ceremony, and a look at Life Care's past, present and future by President Beecher Hunter and Chief Operating Officer Chris Mitchell. Education sessions followed, and attendees will depart this afternoon for dinner and an evening of boating and swimming at the Lake Ocoee home of Forrest and Kathleen Preston. More education sessions dominate the Tuesday agenda, capped with a tour of the Cleveland campuses and dinner with Jimmy Rhodes, director of Music Services. Wednesday morning's presentations focus on leadership, with the closing ceremony coming at a luncheon attended by associates on the Cleveland campuses.

Directors of nursing attending are: Julia Allen, Shari Belcher, Shirley Bradley, Jennifer Daley, Janis Dickerman, LeVet DuPree, Donna Fields, Dolores Gilliland, Belinda Goodwin, Muriel Lapsley, Sandra Lingo, Dawn Pearson, Mandy Rocker, Linda Savage, Sheila St. Pierre, and Lorraine Weddel.

Executive directors present are: David Bake, Michael Borup, Jane Davis, Kari Fry, and Tonya Murner,

Regional leadership in attendance includes: David Kafora and Derek Schmidt, regional vice presidents; and Kim McMullins, regional director of clinical services.

We welcome them to our Life Care family, and we are confident that they will make a significant impact on our company's future.

– Beecher Hunter
