

The Clock of Life

The late Will Rogers had these lines engraved on a huge watch that he presented to David Rubinoff, the consummate violinist:

*The Clock of Life is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.
Now is the only time we own;
Love, life, toil with a will;
Do not wait until tomorrow,
For the Clock may then be still.*

As we proceed into 2015, the message of that engraving imparts wisdom to us. Simply said, do not put off until another time what should be done today in ...

1. Love. Don't neglect to tell the people who are important to you that you care about them. An accident or an illness can quickly snatch them away from us.
2. Life. Every moment, every hour, every day is precious. Don't waste any of it.
3. Toil with a will. For associates in Life Care and Century Park, we are involved in a noble mission of caring for God's children. Let us search for even better ways to do our jobs, and thank Him for the privilege.

If we adhere to these principles, the new year will yield great satisfaction.

You do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away (James 4:14 NKJV).

– Beecher Hunter