

The Tater People

Clay and Judy Logan, proprietors of Clay's Corner and hosts of the annual Possum Drop in Brasstown, Georgia, hand out some bits of wisdom that are worth sharing with our readers. Their observations are entitled "The Tater People:"

- Some people never seem motivated to participate, but are just content to watch others do the work. They are called "Speck Taters."
- Some people never do anything to help, but are gifted at finding fault with the way others do the work. They are called "Comment Taters."
- Some people are very bossy and like to tell others what to do, but don't want to soil their own hands. They are called "Dick Taters."
- Some people are always looking to cause problems by asking others to agree with them. It is too hot or too cold, too sour or too sweet. They are called "Agie Taters."
- There are always those who say that they will help, but somehow just never get around to doing the promised help. They are called "Hezzie Taters."
- Some people can put up a front and pretend to be someone they are not. They are called "Emma Taters."
- Then there are those who love others and do what they say they will. They are always prepared to stop whatever they are doing and lend a helping hand. They bring real sunshine into the lives of others. They are called "Sweet Taters."

Do you recognize any of these Tater people?

As I visit in the centers of Life Care and American Lifestyles and with those who are involved in Life Care at Home, I am pleased to see many Sweet Taters devoting themselves to our residents.
