

What Size Is God?

We're in the middle of summer 2010, and while the temperature and humidity might not suit us exactly, we can look all about us and admire God's handiwork.

Whether we see the whales playing off the beach in Kona, Hawaii, or mountain goats skipping across tall peaks near Sandpoint, Idaho, or stop to marvel at saguaro cactus en route to Payson, Ariz., God truly is the Artist Supreme. I like what Max Lucado, minister and author, has to say about our Lord's creative genius in his book, Grace for the Moment:

Nature is God's workshop. The sky is His résumé. The universe is His calling card. You want to know who God is? See what He has done. You want to know His power? Take a look at His creation. Curious about His strength? Pay a visit to His home address: 1 Billion Starry Sky Avenue.

He is untainted by the atmosphere of sin, unbridled by the timeline of history, unhindered by the weariness of the body.

*What controls you doesn't control Him.
What troubles you doesn't trouble Him.
What fatigues you doesn't fatigue Him.
Is an eagle disturbed by traffic? No, he rises above it. Is the whale perturbed by a hurricane? Of course not; he plunges beneath it. Is the lion flustered by the mouse standing directly in his way? No, he steps over it.*

How much more is God able to soar above, plunge beneath, and step over the troubles of the earth!

So, as you go about your responsibilities in Life Care, Century Park and Life Care at Home today, be assured that you serve a mighty God.

And He is on your side!
