

Your Search in 2014

A certain king had two servants whom he had chosen for special assignments.

To the first, he said, "I want you to travel for six months through my kingdom and bring back a sample of every weed you can find." The servant set out on his journey.

To the second servant, the king said, "I want you to travel through my kingdom for six months and bring back a sample of every flower you can find." The servant immediately began his quest.

Six months later, both servants stood before the king.

To the first, the king asked, "Have you carried out my command?"

The first servant answered, "I have, and I was amazed to find there were so many weeds in the kingdom. In fact, there is nothing but weeds in this kingdom!"

The king asked the second servant if he had been faithful to his command. "I have," he responded, "and I am amazed how many beautiful flowers there are in the kingdom. In fact, there is nothing but beautiful flowers in this kingdom!"

The two servants each found what they were looking for. So do we.

The next chapter of our lives is unfolding with the start of the new year. It isn't for six months, however, it is for 12.

So, what are you looking for in 2014...

- In your marriage?
- In your performance in Life Care, Century Park or Life Care at Home?
- In your community?
- In your recreation?
- In your exercise?
- In your professional development?
- In your relationship with co-workers?
- In your faith?
- In your church?

Are you looking for the weeds or for the flowers?

He (God) has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end. I know that nothing is better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives, and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor – it is the gift of God (Ecclesiastes 3:11-13 NKJV).

– Beecher Hunter